HARRISONBURG - Some of the charges against a Keezletown woman accused of embezzling money from Early's Cycle Center have been dismissed.

The Rockingham County Commonwealth's Attorney's Office dismissed four of the five felony counts Tuesday against Vanessa V. Thompson, 46, of the 1500 block of Indian Trail Road.

Thompson was arrested Oct. 9 after she was accused of stealing money from her employer on at least five separate occasions dating back to 2003.

It's not clear from court records how much money she is actually charged with stealing or how it took place.

Early's Cycle Center, located on South High Street in Harrisonburg, sells motorcycles and all-terrain vehicles.

The remaining count will be presented to a Rockingham County grand jury for consideration.

Thompson's attorney, John Holloran, declined to comment.
